Robbery Detectives seek assistance in Amy's Ice Cream, Wal-Mart, Walgreens robberies

Cases: 09-1981064, 09-2150684, 09-2160952

Dates: July 17, August 3 and August 4, 2009

APD Robbery detectives are seeking the public's assistance in locating a suspect wanted for three robberies. On Friday, July 17, 2009, (case #09-1981064) a female suspect entered the Amy's Ice Cream located at 9900 South IH 35, displayed a knife, demanded money and left the scene with an undisclosed amount of cash.

On Monday, August 3, 2009, a female suspect entered the Wal-Mart at 9300 S I 35. After milling around the store for a while, she approached one of the clerks and presented a cigarette lighter for purchase. When the clerk opened the register drawer, she displayed a folding pocket knife, and demanded the money in the register.

It is believed that a suspect is also responsible for a robbery (case #09-2160952) that occurred at Walgreens at 5100 West Slaughter Lane, on Tuesday, August 4, 2009. She entered the store, displayed a knife and demanded money. She left the scene with an undisclosed amount of cash.

The female suspect fled the scene on foot. She is described as:

White female

Early 30's

5'02"-5'04" tall

Heavy build

Blonde or sandy colored hair

She was last seen wearing a baseball hat. She was wearing a black "Coyote Ugly" t-shirt with white lettering. The back of her shirt read, "Don't just get drunk, get ugly" during the Wal-Mart robbery. She wore an orange t-shirt and blue jeans during the Walgreen's robbery.
